

Consultation

Introduction

The Grey Coat Hospital is consulting on the Academy's proposed Admission Arrangements for 2024-2025 in accordance with paragraph 1.45 of the School Admissions Code (September 2021).

Duration of the Consultation

The consultation process is open from Monday 28 November 2022 until 31 January 2023. If you wish to comment on the proposal you must submit your response in writing during this period. Details of how to submit your views are given How to respond to the Consultation.

Who is involved in the Consultation?

- parents of children between the ages of 2 and 18;
- all other primary and secondary admission authorities in the local area and the Diocese of London and Southwark; and
- the local authority.

The Proposal

The Admission Authority proposes the changes detailed below to the policy:

Where there is under-subscription for Open places, the extra places will be treated first as Church of England places and secondly as Other Church places.

Where there is under-subscription in meeting the Church of England criteria, applicants will be added to the Other Churches places (Churches Together in Britain and Ireland or Evangelical Alliance) in order to benefit from the school's Christian and Church of England tradition.

A copy of the proposed Admissions Arrangements for 2024/25 can be found on the website on the page entitled "Consultation of 2024-25 Admissions Policy" "

How to respond to the Consultation

Please send any comments in relation to the proposals in writing to Headteacher via info@gch.org.uk or by post to The Grey Coat Hospital, Greycoat Place, London SW1P 2DY.

Following the consultation period, the Admission Authority, the school, will consider any comments received and determine how to proceed.

The Admission Authority will determine the final Admission Arrangements by 28th February 2023 with a copy of the Admission Arrangements published on the Academy's website by 15th March 2023.

Any subsequent objections to the published Admission Arrangements will need to be made to the Office of the Schools Adjudicator by 15 May 2023.
