CHURCH OF ENGLAND COMPREHENSIVE SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

Part-Time Singing Teacher Job Description

Hours:	Casual supply contract, term time only – 30 weeks per year
Department:	Music
Responsible to:	Head of Music
Pay:	£40 per hour (incl of rolled up holiday pay)

Job purpose

The role will involve teaching students one-on-one in a range of styles. Candidates must have previous singing tuition experience and should be capable of teaching up to Grade 8 standard and beyond as well as GCSE and A-Level performances. Piano skills are highly desirable.

About the department

Team:	You will join a friendly and supportive team of 11 peripatetic teachers and be welcomed into the Music Department. Our teachers are highly regarded in the music world and perform regularly alongside their teaching.
Student numbers:	The Music Department is vibrant, dynamic and highly successful, offering instrumental/singing lessons to around 200 of our pupils aged 11 to 18.
Exams/Grades:	Around 70 students take ABRSM examinations every year. Students achieved 100% 4-9 at GCSE and 100% A to B grades at A-level (based on our 2019 Music results). The instrumental/singing team are integral to our success, and as such we are looking for a candidate who can support the curriculum, up to A-level standard.

Key Responsibilities

- To provide high-quality individual singing tuition to allocated students
- To plan individual lessons that set challenging teaching and learning objectives which are relevant to the pupils taught
- To select and prepare resources including repertoire
- To monitor and assess pupil progress
- To organise and manage teaching and learning time effectively
- To maintain accurate attendance records
- To organise a timetable that adheres to the rota system in operation

DURING COVID-19

Hours

Initially 5-6 hours teaching per week but with the opportunity to expand depending on student demand. The ideal candidate would be able to offer a reliable, consistent service (regularity of teaching days) and provide 30 lessons throughout the year, split across 3 blocks of 10 lessons each as set by the School on a regular set day each week between 8am and 4pm. Although we require the teaching day to be set, some flexibility can be offered occasionally.

The school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of young people and expects all members of staff to share this commitment.

An enhanced DBS disclosure is required for all posts.

Canvassing any employee, or member of the Governing Body, directly or indirectly is prohibited and will be considered as a disqualification.
