

The Grey Coat Hospital

Key Stage Five Curriculum Plan - Subject: German

Year 12

Half Term (HT)	Topic Area / Focus
HT1	- Describing trends in German families - Discussing opinions about marriage in German speaking countries - Discussing current issues for families in German
	- Discussing the meaning of 'Germany' - Describing Christmas traditions in German speaking countries - Analysing the importance of festivals today - Giving information about festivals in German speaking countries, including smaller regional festivals
HT2	- Describing architectural styles in German speaking countries - Discussing the societal role that architecture plays - Describing significant works of art from German-speaking countries - Analysing the importance of art in society today
	- Discussing the importance of music in the lives of German-speaking teenagers - Discussing the importance of music festivals - Debating the effects of the internet on the music industry - Debating the importance of German language song lyrics. - Analysing the importance of TV in the lives of German teenagers today.
HT3	- Describing the film Goodbye Lenin - Analysing the characters in the film. - Discussing key themes in the film - Analysing the use of film techniques to create meaning.
	Learning about this history of Berlin

The Grey Coat Hospital

Key Stage Five Curriculum Plan - Subject: German

	- Analysing how this history is remembered today. - Discussing the variety of the cultural offerings in Berlin today - Explaining Berlin's diverse population and the historical reasons for this.
HT4	- Exploring how historical events explored in the film - Analysing the role of secondary characters in the film.
	- Discussing the role of technology in education - Analysing the role that technology plays in the Germany economy more generally. - Debating the pros and cons of AI - Discussing the problems and challenges of the digitalisation of society - Discussing the chances and dangers of social media.
HT5	Revision
	- Discussing attitudes to fashion and beauty standards more generally in German speaking countries. - Discussing fame and the potential negatives of this - Debating the merits of the fashion industry
Year 13
Half Term (HT)	Topic Area / Focus
HT1	- Describing life in East Germany before and after reunification - Analysing the challenges of reunification - Discussing the politics of the memory of the GDR - Analysing the current economic and societal differences
	- Kafka's Metamorphosis - giving accurate plot details - Describing the historical context of the novella

The Grey Coat Hospital

Key Stage Five Curriculum Plan - Subject: German

	- Analysing characters - Discussing the meaning of the transformation
HT2	- Describing the history of European integration - Discussing the role of Germany in the EU - Debating the pros and cons of the EU for Germany - Explaining the significance of the Erasmus program - Predicting future developments within the EU
	- Discussing key themes in Metamorphosis - Analysing the development of characters - Discussing the role of secondary characters - Analysing Kafka's use of literary devices
HT3	- Describing the history of immigration into German speaking countries - Debating the pros and cons of immigration - Analysing current and past immigration policies
	- Analysing levels and means of political participation among German speaking young people - Describing others ways that young people get involved politically - Discussing current political views of German young people - Was wissen Sie über die politischen Einstellungen unter Jugendlichen in Deutschland, Österreich oder der Schweiz?
HT4	- Discussing measures to integrate foreigners into society - Analysing the success of these measures - Suggesting possible measures for meeting future challenges
	- Describing the problem of right-wing extremism in German speaking countries - Discussing the causes of racist attitudes today in German society. - Debating whether we should ban the AfD?

The Grey Coat Hospital

Key Stage Five Curriculum Plan - Subject: German

HT5	Preparation for examinations
HT6	